PICKS OF THE WEEK

Read of the Week

Shannon's Pick:

"Way of the Peaceful Warrior" is a part-fictional, part-autobiographical book based upon the early life of the author Dan Millman, tell of a chance meeting with a gas station attendant who becomes a spiritual teacher to the young gymnast. The attendant, whom Millman names Socrates, becomes a kind of father figure and teaches Millman how to become a "peaceful warrior."

Movie of the Week

Shannon's Pick:

In The Silence of the Lambs, Clarice Starling (Jodie Foster) is pulled from her training at the FBI Academy at Quantico, Virginia, by Jack Crawford (Scott Glenn) of the Bureau's Behavioral Science Unit. He tasks her with interviewing Hannibal Lecter (Anthony Hopkins), a former psychiatrist and incarcerated cannibalistic serial killer, believing Lecter's insight might be useful in the pursuit of a serial killer nicknamed "Buffalo Bill" (Ted Levine), who skins his female victims' corpses.

Album of the Week

Shannon's Pick:

The great Etta James has been a musical force and a major hit-maker since the '50s earning numerous accolades including six Grammy Awards®, among them the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award, a Best Jazz Vocal Performance and two Hall of Fame Awards. "Love Songs" features a number of James' most iconic songs, including "At Last".

Website of the Week

Planet Aid is a non-profit organization that collects donated clothing and shoes to protect the environment and support sustainable development in impoverished communities around the world.
